

Books, Blankets & Cocoa, Oh My!

On Friday, January 15, 2021 at 6:00 p.m., grab your favorite blanket and a cup of hot cocoa and get ready to join us for a Virtual Family Reading Night!

We will have coloring sheets and an easy hot chocolate recipe to do at home. Best of all, we will have a surprise guest reader! Log on through your child's chromebook by clicking the link below. Also, the link will be provided on your child's Google Classroom stream on January 15th.
