

CARVER MIDDLE AN IB WORLD SCHOOL DRESS CODE 2022-2023

George Washington Carver Community Middle School has a unified dress code policy. All students have the right to attend a safe and secure school where the focus is on academics. Carver ensures that students are dressed and groomed in a manner that will not interfere with the school environment or disrupt the educational process. Clothing should be suitable, comfortable, and safe for normal school activities and should reflect pride in one's personal appearance. The George Washington Carver Middle School unified dress code promotes safety, improves discipline, and enhances the learning environment.

Only the items described below are allowed at George Washington Carver Community Middle School. Any variations and/or additions are considered a violation of the school's code.
