Notification Regarding BHS Football Game:

Binghamton High School's football season officially kicks off tonight with our first home game! We will be hosting our opponents, the Union-Endicott Tigers, at 7 p.m. at Alumni Stadium.

Elementary and middle school students must be accompanied by adults. High school students will need to show their school ID and tap in, as they may attend without adult supervision. Students will need to bring a student ID for entry and should enter through the gate closest to the fieldhouse, which is clearly marked as being for students. Admission is $2 for students, $3 for adults.

Ahead of the game, we would like to share with you a few reminders of ways that we can all display Patriot Pride. We ask our fans to please sit in the dedicated BCSD side of the field, and refrain from standing near the fence so that all may easily see the game. Please be respectful and courteous to those around you, in order to help us keep the game peaceful, safe, and enjoyable for all. Remember that we are all representatives of the Binghamton City School District, and we want to be the best Binghamton we can be at all school and community events.

Anyone who is unable to attend the game in person may watch it live via the BCSD Athletics YouTube page. Go Patriots!
